Licensing hours and rules

How late bars can open

Under the Licensing (Jersey) Law 1974, the hours depend on the type of licence:

- Pubs (taverner's licence): 9am to 11pm on weekdays, and 11am to 11pm on Sundays, Good Friday and Christmas Day, with a 1am finish on New Year's Eve
- Restaurant and club licences: until 1am
- Designated nightclubs: until 2am on weekdays

Under-18s

Bars can't sell alcohol to anyone under 18, and under-18s can't buy it or drink it on licensed premises. They can't be in a room with a public bar during licensed hours, except that an under-18 with an adult can stay until 9pm if the room is suitable for them. An under-18 eating a meal with an adult can be served beer, wine or cider with it.

Who licenses bars

Licences are granted by the Licensing Assembly, after the parish assembly has considered the application. gov.je lists the licence types. A new Alcohol Licensing Law has been passed to replace the 1974 Law, but it hadn't come into force when we checked.

Getting home

Jersey's drink drive limit is 35 micrograms of alcohol per 100 millilitres of breath, or 80 milligrams per 100 millilitres of blood, and you can still be over the limit the next morning. Our Jersey taxi numbers page has the numbers for every booking firm.

Listings are free and in alphabetical order. Jersey Web is not connected with these businesses unless a listing says so: check details with each business before you book. Guidance checked 14 November 2026.
