Before you book

Where they are

Here's where the ones we list are based. We don't have one listed in St Brelade yet.

- St Helier: Eye Candy on Hill Street, Splendida on Minden Place, The Parlour on Burrard Street and Image Barbers at West Centre.
- St Saviour: Jim's Barbers at Five Oaks.
- St Peter: Coco Rose Hair Studio at Manor Barn.

Who publishes prices

Only two of the six publish hair prices we could read, and neither list is dated, so check before you go:

- Image Barbers: short back and sides from £26, skin fade from £30, beard trim from £15, and under-10s from £17.
- Splendida: with a stylist, cut and blow-dry from £52, gents' cut from £26, and full head colour from £68. Its directors charge more.
- The Parlour has a price guide page, but we couldn't see any amounts on it. It says the price depends on your hair's length and density and the products used, and it varies by stylist.

Booking and walk-ins

- Online: Image Barbers, Splendida, The Parlour, Eye Candy and Coco Rose all offer online booking.
- Walk-in: Jim's Barbers says it's walk-in only, with no appointments. Image Barbers also accepts walk-ins.

Having your hair coloured

Ask about a patch test when you book a colour. Coco Rose, for example, asks for one 48 hours before a colour if you're a new client or it hasn't seen you for three months. Also ask for a price that includes everything: The Parlour says its colour prices don't include a cut and finish unless it says so.

Do hairdressers need to be registered?

We found no Jersey law that requires a hairdresser or barber to register or hold a set qualification, though nobody official has confirmed this to us. gov.je's list of regulated sectors doesn't name hairdressing, so ask about training and experience.

Salons that offer tattooing or body piercing are different. Those services, and their premises, must be registered with the Jersey Care Commission.

Listings are free and in alphabetical order. Jersey Web is not connected with these businesses unless a listing says so: check details with each business before you book. Guidance checked 4 November 2026.
