Buying jewellery in Jersey

Prices include GST

Jersey charges GST at 5%, not VAT. Jersey's price marking rules say prices shown to shoppers must include GST where it applies, so the price on the tag is the price you pay.

Your rights if a piece is faulty

Under the Supply of Goods and Services (Jersey) Law 2009, goods a business sells must be of satisfactory quality, fit for purpose and as described. Go back to the jeweller first. Trading Standards Jersey gives free advice on 01534 448160.

Ask about hallmarks

The UK's Hallmarking Act 1973 doesn't extend to Jersey, and we found no Jersey hallmarking law. If a hallmark matters to you, ask the jeweller whether a piece is hallmarked and by which assay office before you buy.

Large cash payments

The Jersey Financial Services Commission says a business that accepts €15,000 (around £12,500) or more in cash for a sale may count as a high value dealer and need to register with it. Jewellers are one of the businesses it names, so expect identity checks on very large cash purchases.

Listings are free and in alphabetical order. Jersey Web is not connected with these businesses unless a listing says so: check details with each business before you book. Guidance checked 14 November 2026.
