Holiday lets in Jersey: the rules

Tourist accommodation is registered

gov.je says self-catering units and campsites used as tourist accommodation must be registered, after an inspection, and the registration is renewed every year. Under the Tourism (General Provisions) (Jersey) Order 1990, premises that sleep 5 people or fewer at any one time are exempt.

Letting your own home for short stays

Under Jersey's planning rules, you can let a home, or part of one, for holiday stays without planning permission if the stays add up to 12 weeks or less in a calendar year. Letting for longer needs permission, and physical changes may need planning or building approval. If your let sleeps more than 5 people, ask licensing@gov.je about tourism registration.

Getting here

Jersey is reached by air through Jersey Airport or by sea into St Helier, both run by Ports of Jersey. If something goes wrong with a booking, Trading Standards Jersey gives free advice on 01534 448160.

Listings are free and in alphabetical order. Jersey Web is not connected with these businesses unless a listing says so: check details with each business before you book. Guidance checked 14 November 2026.
