Getting married in Jersey: what to know

Give notice at least 8 weeks ahead

For a civil wedding, or a religious one that isn't Church of England, you apply to the Superintendent Registrar at 25 New Street, St Helier. You can apply up to 12 months before the wedding and must give notice at least 8 weeks before it. You need a confirmed venue booking first, and original documents such as birth certificates and passports.

Church of England weddings go through the church or the Deanery of Jersey instead.

The fees

When we checked, gov.je listed these non-refundable fees:

- Application to marry, including the notice fee: £226.28
- Marriage schedule: £339.43 to £362.06, depending on the venue and date
- Changing a notice: £56.57

Only an approved location will do

Under the Marriage and Civil Status (Jersey) Law 2001, a wedding can only take place at an approved location. gov.je publishes the list of approved venues, which includes castles, hotels, gardens and some coastal sites.

To marry somewhere else, such as a garden or a field, you can apply to have it approved for a single ceremony (£253.87 when we checked). Apply at least 3 months ahead, as approval can take up to 2 months. No food or drink can be served where the ceremony takes place.

Who can marry you

Only the Superintendent Registrar or a deputy, a clergyman, an authorised civil celebrant or an authorised religious official can legally marry you in Jersey. Celebrants are self-employed but authorised and regulated by the Superintendent Registrar, and set their own fees. A civil ceremony can't include religious ritual.

Coming from outside Jersey

Couples who live off-island don't need to attend the first appointment, and someone else can apply for them. Non-British and non-Irish nationals need immigration permission and a Certificate of No Impediment. Contact the Superintendent Registrar's office early.

Drones at weddings

Drones in Jersey come under the Air Navigation (Jersey) Law 2014, not UK rules. Jersey Air Traffic Control guidance says a camera drone must stay 50 metres from people not under the pilot's control without permission, and paid filming is likely to need an Aerial Work permit. Ask your photographer whether they have one.

Listings are free and in alphabetical order. Jersey Web is not connected with these businesses unless a listing says so: check details with each business before you book. Guidance checked 14 November 2026.
